Do you want to get closer to the source by engaging with this material in the same format that the Borderland Sciences Research Associates of the twentieth century would have? Do you find yourself appreciative of the classic typesetting in an original, imperfect mimeograph edition? Just need the tactility of paper to fully digest the information? We are here to serve you. All back issues of the Round Robin and Journal of Borderland Research are available in their original format -- ink on paper. Every purchase of print material helps support the Foundation and allows us to continue to provide our unique service to all seekers.
